

LINKS

Loving, Interested Nazarenes, Knowing and Sharing

“Shortly after we arrived in the Philippines, we were put in touch with our first LINKS district....In those lonely days we received package after package for Christmas. Sunday School classes wrote our children, and people just kept sending letters, cards, and gifts. For a lonely family far away from home, those were a blessing from heaven and from Jesus’ Church.”

—David and Naomi Phillips,
Missionaries to the Philippines

“From him [Christ] the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.”

Ephesians 4:16, NIV

LINKS allows you to be a part of the “missionary body.” While you may not be called to serve as a missionary, LINKS allows you to help support a missionary family that is assigned to your church.

You can do the following:

- ▶ Pray regularly for them.
- ▶ Communicate via phone, E-mail, letters, and cards.
- ▶ Share your lives through audio- and videocassettes.
- ▶ Provide the LINKS missionary family with items they need or want.
- ▶ Remember LINKS missionaries at special times of the year, such as holidays, birthdays, or anniversaries.

The responsibilities are simple, yet so important. Your participation may make a difference in a young missionary family facing their first term away from family and friends. Your intercession might affect a veteran missionary’s life during a particularly challenging time.

Become part of the “missionary body” by helping build it up in love. Get to know your LINKS missionaries personally.
